A Compelling and Inspiring Memoir

In Because It's Israel, author Sarah Alt recounts her family's extraordinary journey to make aliyah (immigrate) to Israel. From their initial decision to leave their comfortable life in the United States to their struggles and triumphs in their new home, Sarah shares her personal story with warmth, humor, and honesty.

Sarah's writing is both engaging and informative. She provides a unique perspective on the challenges and rewards of aliyah, and her insights will be invaluable to anyone considering making the move to Israel.

Full of Personal Stories, Insights, and Practical Advice

Because It's Israel is more than just a memoir. It is also a practical guide for anyone considering aliyah. Sarah shares her family's experiences with everything from finding a home and a job to dealing with culture shock and language barriers.

Sarah's advice is invaluable, and her personal stories will help you to feel more prepared for your own aliyah journey.

A Must-Read for Anyone Considering Aliyah

If you are considering making aliyah, I highly recommend reading Because It's Israel. Sarah's insights and advice will be invaluable to you as you embark on your own aliyah journey.
