

Dawson City Stanley Cup Challenge: The Story of How a Yukon Town Captivated the World of Hockey

The event is notable for being the first time the Stanley Cup was played for outside of Canada. It is also notable for being the first time that a team from the Yukon Territory competed for the Stanley Cup.

The Dawson City Nuggets were a team of local miners and hockey players. The team was led by Joe Boyle, a former professional hockey player from Ontario. The Ottawa Silver Seven was a team of professional hockey players from Ottawa, Ontario. The team was led by Hod Stuart, a future Hall of Fame player.

The two teams met in a best-of-three series for the Stanley Cup. The Nuggets won the first game 7-3, but the Silver Seven won the next two games 9-2 and 23-2.
