Eva is so excited to go to the beach with her family! She can't wait to build sandcastles, swim in the ocean, and play in the sand. But when she gets to the beach, she realizes that it's not quite what she expected. The sand is hot, the water is cold, and there are too many people around. Eva starts to feel overwhelmed and homesick.

But with the help of her friends, Eva learns to embrace the new experience and have some fun. She builds a sandcastle, swims in the ocean, and plays in the sand. She even makes some new friends. By the end of the day, Eva is glad that she came to the beach. She had a lot of fun, and she learned that it's okay to try new things.
