The story is about a family who is preparing for Christmas. The children are excited about the presents they will receive, but their parents are more focused on the true meaning of the season. They want their children to understand that Christmas is about more than just getting gifts. It is about celebrating the birth of Jesus Christ, our Savior.

The family spends the weeks leading up to Christmas talking about the story of Jesus' birth. They read the Christmas story from the Bible, and they sing Christmas carols. They also talk about the importance of giving to others. They want to show their children that Christmas is a time to share love and joy with those around us.

On Christmas Eve, the family goes to church for a special service. They sing Christmas carols and listen to the story of Jesus' birth. Then, they go home and open their presents. The children are excited about the toys they received, but they are also grateful for the true meaning of Christmas.
