On her birthday, a little girl named Lily is excited to celebrate with her friends and family. But when her guests arrive, she realizes that they don't have any presents for her. Lily is disappointed, but her friends and family quickly assure her that they have something better: their imaginations.

Together, they embark on an imaginative journey, turning the living room into a magical forest, the backyard into a pirate ship, and the kitchen into a castle. Lily and her friends have a wonderful time using their imaginations to create their own fun.

My Birthday Party: My Words Readers is a charming story that teaches children the importance of imagination and creativity. It also shows that the best 礼物 aren't always the ones that you can wrap.
