

The Diary of Anne Frank: A Timeless Tale of Courage and Resilience

The Diary of Anne Frank is a powerful and poignant account of a young girl's life during the Holocaust. Written by Anne Frank herself, the diary provides a unique and intimate glimpse into the experiences of a Jewish family hiding from the Nazis during World War II.

Anne began writing her diary on her thirteenth birthday in 1942. She named her imaginary friend Kitty and wrote to her about her daily life, her hopes, and her fears. Anne's diary is a remarkable document that offers a firsthand account of the Holocaust from the perspective of a child.
