Thinking about investing in Greece and obtaining residency? You're not alone. Greece has become increasingly popular in recent years as a destination for both tourists and investors alike. And for good reason. Greece has a rich history, a beautiful landscape, and a vibrant culture. It's also a member of the European Union, which means that residents of Greece have the right to live and work anywhere in the EU.

If you're interested in learning more about Greece residency by investment, then you've come to the right place. In this guide, we'll cover everything you need to know, including:

- The different types of Greece residency by investment programs
- The requirements for each program
- The benefits of Greece residency by investment
- The steps involved in applying for Greece residency by investment

Types of Greece Residency by Investment Programs

There are two main types of Greece residency by investment programs:

- The Golden Visa program
- The Fast Track Citizenship program

The Golden Visa Program

The Golden Visa program is the most popular Greece residency by investment program. It allows non-EU citizens to obtain a five-year residency permit in Greece by investing in real estate. The minimum investment amount is €250,000.

The Golden Visa program is a good option for investors who are looking for a relatively quick and easy way to obtain residency in Greece. The application process is straightforward, and there are no language or education requirements.

The Fast Track Citizenship Program

The Fast Track Citizenship program is a newer Greece residency by investment program. It allows non-EU citizens to obtain Greek citizenship in just two years by investing in real estate. The minimum investment amount is €500,000.

The Fast Track Citizenship program is a good option for investors who are looking to obtain Greek citizenship as quickly as possible. The application process is more complex than the Golden Visa program, but it is still relatively straightforward.

Requirements for Greece Residency by Investment

The requirements for Greece residency by investment vary depending on the program you choose. However, there are some general requirements that apply to both programs:

- You must be a non-EU citizen
- You must be over 18 years old
- You must have a clean criminal record
- You must have sufficient financial means to support yourself and your family in Greece

Requirements for the Golden Visa Program

- You must invest at least €250,000 in real estate in Greece
- You must hold the property for at least five years

Requirements for the Fast Track Citizenship Program

- You must invest at least €500,000 in real estate in Greece
- You must hold the property for at least two years
- You must pass a Greek language test

Benefits of Greece Residency by Investment

There are many benefits to obtaining Greece residency by investment, including:

- The right to live and work in Greece
- The right to travel freely within the EU
- Access to free healthcare and education
- The opportunity to apply for Greek citizenship

Steps Involved in Applying for Greece Residency by Investment

The steps involved in applying for Greece residency by investment vary depending on the program you choose. However, there are some general steps that apply to both programs:

- Choose a qualified real estate agent
- Find and Free Download a suitable property
- Submit an application to the Greek authorities

- Attend an interview (for the Fast Track Citizenship program only)
